

Looking Upwards' Executive Director Receives Award

Carrie W. Miranda, the Executive Director of Looking Upwards, was honored as a recipient of the Providence Business News Forty Under Forty, a group of 40 successful individuals in Rhode Island selected for their commitment to the community.

Throughout her life, Ms. Miranda has been active in working to improve the lives of people with developmental disabilities. For the past twenty years she has worked in the field and since 2004, she has served as the Executive Director of Looking Upwards. Additionally, Ms. Miranda is the vice president of the Community Provider Network of Rhode Island and is Rhode Island's representative to both the American Association for Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities and the American Network of Community Options and Resources.

We at Looking Upwards are proud to congratulate Carrie and thank her for her inspirational leadership. She is a visionary who creates new possibilities by facing directly into challenges. We thank you for your dedication to the individuals and families whose lives are touched by Looking Upwards' services.
